SHERIFF-CORONER DON BARNES

ATTEMPT TO IDENTIFY

ACTIVITY: Child Annoyance

LOCATION: Windsong and Aliso Creek Road // Aliso Creek Hiking Trail

DETAILS: At approximately 9 a.m. on Thursday, Sept. 12, deputies received a report that a 12-year-old female walking to Aliso Viejo Middle School was touched by a male suspect. The 12-year-old confronted the suspect and yelled at him before getting away. The victim described the suspect as a man, possibly Caucasian, in his early 30s, dirty blond hair and a goatee. The suspect was wearing sunglasses and was dressed in all-black clothing. The investigation is ongoing.

At approximately 4 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 17, deputies received a report that a 16-year-old female walking home from Aliso Niguel High School along the Aliso Creek Hiking Trail was touched by a male suspect. The suspect ran off in an unknown direction. The victim described the suspect as a man, possibly Hispanic, between 30 and 40 years old, 5'6", 140 pounds, and short black hair. The suspect was wearing sunglasses and was dressed in a black collared shirt and tan cargo pants. The investigation is ongoing.
