ADDRESS VERIFICATION DECLARATION

I have used reasonable diligence within the past 12 months to verify the judgment debtor's address, as described more fully below. To the best of my knowledge the judgment debtor's address is correct.

The methods used are described as follows:

- Receipt of correspondence from the judgment debtor, dated _____, that includes a return address or other comparable verification of the judgment debtor's address.
- Transmittal of a letter by certified mail, or other method of transmission through the USPS providing a return receipt, to the judgment debtor's address, with a return receipt dated _____.
- By a commercial address verification service, including skip-tracing, or a public record database, followed by dispatch letter, by first-class mail to the verified address dated _____, that was not returned to sender.
- Other (describe): _____
