ENDANGERED MISSING PERSON

NAME: Angelo Nicola Gatti
AGE: 9/19/52 (21 years old when missing)
DESCRIPTION: M, W, 5'2", 120 lbs., reddish brown hair, blue eyes
D/T LAST SEEN: July 13, 1974 @ 7:00 PM

DETAILS BELOW

Mr. Gatti was last seen on July 13, 1974. He had been driven to the San Juan Hot Springs area off of the Ortega Highway by family members and dropped off. He is an avid hiker and enjoys living in the wilderness. He planned to live off of the land in the Cleveland National Forest. He was last seen wearing a white t-shirt, cut-off cords, white Yamaha jacket, and tan work boots. He had a .22 caliber Smith and Wesson revolver and a sleeping bag in his possession. According to Gatti's family he was in a depressed mood and was overly concerned with the environment. They believed that he would only be camping for a couple of weeks but after not contacting anyone for several months they became concerned and decided to report him missing.

Anyone with information regarding the disappearance of Angelo N. Gatti is asked to call the Orange County Sheriff's Department at numbers provided below.
